PRESIDENT NEWS: CAREER SERVICES OFFERED BY FEI NEW YORK CITY

Seen hanging recently in a Princeton shop window:

HELP WANTED

- Some experience
- Common sense
- Ability to do math on the fly
- Creative spirit

Imagine if that was the typical spec for a senior financial executive role! Well, wishful thinking. But those looking for a change or new opportunity can tap the many resources of FEI and find greener pastures sooner than the competition.

This month, FEI New York City introduces "Career Corner" in our monthly newsletter (see below, bottom right corner). As we build this up, you will find topical articles, which members have recently changed roles, "Ask an Expert" Q&A, and many more resources to assist you with thought-forward career management. In addition, FEI already offers several key resources to its members:

- Chapter programs on relevant career topics
- Regular networking opportunities hosted by the Chapter
- Chapter Career Services committee led by industry professional, Alyssa Gelbard
- Access to members-only professional content on the FEI website
- National partnership with Robert Half accessed via FEI website
- Nationwide network of chapters 10,000+ members strong

By your very membership in a professional association like FEI, you have a leg up on the competition.

Happy hunting and hope to see you at our January program on Negotiation Skills.

Matt
